

Special event

Exploring LGBTQ histories at the British Museum

Sunday 19 February 2017, 10.30–16.00
Great Court and BP Lecture Theatre

Badge, UK 1986.

LGBTQ: our family

11.00–16.00, Great Court

Come to the Great Court for a family craft activity inspired by LGBTQ History Month that explores how families are unique. Work with an artist to create a family portrait inspired by works in the collection and make a love token to take home. Free, just drop in

Specialist talks

10.30–14.40, BP Lecture Theatre
Free, just drop in

- 10.30 Introduction to the morning talks
Laura Phillips,
Head of Community Partnerships
- 10.40 When two lovers meet: the 11,000-year-old sculpture from Ain Sakhri, Palestine
Jill Cook,
Keeper of Britain, Europe and Prehistory
- 11.10 Radical radishes and other campaigns
Philip Attwood,
Keeper of Coins and Medals
- 11.40 Muck or meaning? Scenes of a (homo)sexual nature on Greek pots
Thomas Kiely, Greece and Rome
- 12.10 Lunch (not provided)
- 13.30 Introduction to the afternoon talks
Laura Phillips,
Head of Community Partnerships
- 13.40 The swashbuckling life of the Chevalier d'Eon
Sarah Vowles, Prints and Drawings
- 14.10 Desire, love, identity: exploring LGBTQ histories
Stuart Frost, Head of Interpretation, and Laura Phillips,
Head of Community Partnerships
- 14.40 End